DIMORA HOUSE

Blest be the tie...

Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual brudens bear,
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When here our pathways part
We suffer mutual pain;
Yet, one in CHRISt and one in Heart,
We hope to meet again.

Consider Yourself

Consider yourself at home,
Consider yourself one of the family.
We've taken to you so strong,
It's clear we'er going to get along.
Consider yourself well in,
CONsider yourself part of the furniture
There ins't a lot to spare,
WHO CARES!
WHatever we've gor we'll share.

Can't promise beds or dates or doors or desks or B"S or A'S.
But we promise we're with you.
Despite quiet hours, studying, and J.N.'s
We will pull each other through.

Consider yourself our mates
We don't want to have no fuss
But after some consideration we can state
CONSIDER YOURSELF ONE OF US!

SISTERS OF DIMORA

Sisters of Dimora are we-
I'll cry when you're sad,
I'll laugh when you're happy,
For sisters of Dimora are we,
And a bond of love ties us in unity.

Together we'll walk-
Together we'll talk-
I'll give you my hand
And try to understand,
And from Christ above
We will learn to work in love-
My family, my sisters, my friend

You'll share with me your dreams
And I'll share with you my schemes
You'll share with me your fears,
And I'll share with you my tears
And together our love will grow
As we fight each other's foes-
My family, my sisters, my friends.

Upon Gracelands hill
Our hearts, they will fill
With the power of God's light
That overcomes the night.
And sisters we'll always be
From now 'till eternity,
For Sisters of Dimora are we.

HANGING AROUND PATTY'S ROOM

I like the sunrise with its promises...of a new day for me to face...with its challenge and opportunities...as one of the human race...Yesterday is gone and forever past...There's nothing
I can do with it...Today is here and time in my hands...Help me use every little bit...Lord,' in such a wise and joyful manner...
I can consecrate it to you...Find joy in each task and achievement... as I pay everyone his due.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

How lovely are the sentiments
Contained in Christmas cards,
As well as dear heartwarming scenes,
Of snowy trees and yards.

They never change so very much
But who would want it so,
For Christmas seems to just belong
To cedar trees and snow.

The greetings on a Christmas card,
Are precious as a gem,
Because old neighbors and old friends
Send us their love with them...

Warming our hearts with loving words,
Making us know that they
Are thinking of dear bygone times,
Upon this Christmas Day.

A holly wreath, a little church,
A lovely lighted door,
Some carol singers in the street,
The windows of a store,

All these are part of Christmastime,
Like cake and mistletoe,
Because a card arrived today,
And sort of told me so.
